Teacher's background and brief (教师及其简介):	I have been painting for most of my life. It is through exploration that artists build and create their innate style. Have shown with several art groups in Los Angeles and presently show and sell with the San Diego Art Institute and the San Diego Watercolor Society, and other venues here in San Diego. I mostly paint from photos. My art includes giant flowers, portraits, landscapes and animals. Presently working on thoroughbreds. Enjoy working with children because their minds are fresh and open to learning new things!
Course brief and Description (课程简述):	I will introduce the students to colors and how they work and mix together using the color wheel and washes. There are several techniques which I find very effective for any level painting and those I will use for teaching this class.
